In continuation of his letter dated 22nd instant, the Chief Commandant's refusal is in view of the difficulty of arranging for examining the Officer, he will be prepared to go to Bangalore to undergo the examination. Submits for orders as to whether the Chief Commandant may be requested to state if the probationary Asst. Comr cannot be arranged to be taught riding by the detachment at Shimoga and, after training there, examined at Bangalore. It will not be necessary to write to the Chief Commandant if after some months training under the Dy. Comr of Shimoga, the Officer is transferred to Bangalore or Mysore so as to enable him to undergo the requisite training and qualify himself in equitation before the probationary period of 2 years has elapsed.

In his letter of 14th March 1914 the Chief Commandant has informed the Dy. Comr that Mr. Venkatanarayanappa cannot be trained at the Shimoga detachment that he must join the Riding School at Bangalore or Mysore to undergo the requisite course. The Chief Commandant has to be asked why Mr. Venkatanarayanappa cannot be permitted to receive training at Shimoga now, which arrangements could be made for such training to be given at Shimoga in 1912; unless there is a likelihood of the 1st April 1914.

Dear Mr.Srinivasa Iyengar,

I have addressed the marginally noted official letters to you on the subject of Mr.Venkatanarnappa's equitation course. Since writing these letters I have come across the Chief Commandant's letter No.615 dated 9th August 1912 (copy enclosed) in which he said that arrangements could be made here for giving training to Amildars in equitation and for examining them. Subsequently he wrote that the Amildars trained here would have to be examined in Bangalore or Mysore. Mr.Venkatanarnappa is quite ready to go to --- Bangalore for the examination after completing the course.

SUBJECT.

The officer has to qualify himself in equitation within the period of his probation and as he is now on duty at Shimoga it will be convenient for him if he could be given the requisite training there.

It is observed that arrangements have been made in the past for the training of officers in equitation at Shimoga - vide your letter No. 615 G. 9.8.1912 to the Deputy Commr. of the Shimoga dt.

Thanks.
